* * * MEDIA ALERT * * ***

What: RMI Management, LLC (RMI) is hosting a Legislative Update breakfast for Las Vegas community association board members and other guests. Volunteer board members (homeowners) will learn how the various laws enacted by the 2009 Legislature will affect community associations. This includes laws that enable an association to maintain a foreclosed property, determine the responsible party for common-interest walls and auditing procedures.

Who: Speakers include Kevin Wallace, president and CEO of RMI, the largest community association management firm in Southern Nevada, which represents more than 75,000 homes. Wallace is also the president of the Community Association Management Executive Organization (CAMEO).

Michael Schulman, managing partner of the Las Vegas office of Wolf, Rifkin, Shapiro, Schulman & Rabkin, LLC, will present "A legal perspective on new HOA laws in the 75th session of the Nevada Legislature."

Jon Ralston, host of "Face to Face with Jon Ralston" on local TV news station Las Vegas 1, will discuss "HOA legislation with a journalistic perspective."

When: Thursday, Aug. 13, from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Where: Four Seasons Hotel, Acacia Ballroom 1

Interviews: Media may interview Wallace, Schulman and Ralston, as well as event attendees.

Contact: Cheryl Persinger, B&P, 967-2222 or 325-7351 (cell).
Heather Herrod, RMI, 215-8196 or 279-6160 (cell).
