RMI Management, LLC names Chris Yergensen VP, High-rise and Luxury Property Division

LAS VEGAS – RMI Management, LLC named Chris Yergensen vice president of its high-rise and luxury property division.

Yergensen's experience includes working with developers to implement condominium associations for various high-rise developments. He served as president of the original development company of Panorama Towers, a high-rise condominium project just west of the Las Vegas Strip consisting of 1,000 units.

"RMI represents many high-rise and luxury associations," said Kevin Wallace, president and CEO of RMI Management. "Chris brings a great deal of expertise to this market and we welcome him to our team."

Yergensen began his career at Jones Vargas, one of the largest law firms in Nevada, where he served as a transactional and administrative law associate. He assisted in business and corporate transactions related to mergers and acquisitions, and in administrative law transactions related to business, development, real estate and gaming ventures.

Yergensen received his bachelor's degree in business from the University of Utah, and his law degree from Whittier College School of Law, where he graduated magna cum laude. He served as an intern for Judge Arthur L. Alarcon, of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Los Angeles. He also received his master's of law degree in corporate law from New York University School of Law.
